

California's 22nd Annual Freethought Day

FREEDOM OF SPEECH AND THOUGHT · CIVIC ENGAGEMENT · ENTHUSIASM FOR SCIENCE SOCIAL JUSTICE · SEPARATION OF CHURCH AND STATE

Join Us in Celebration October 8 (Sunday), 2023

We will be celebrating our 22nd year, this time at the California State Capitol Gardens with an in-person and livestreamed event.

This year's speakers have not yet been announced, but our theme will focus on scientific achievement and we'll be recognizing local science heroes.

We also expect a variety of representatives from many local and national community organizations, plus live entertainment, authors, podcasters, and more.

Our annual scholarship program is well underway, with $3,500 available to high school and college students spanning three contests.

Our Secular Leadership Day (Oct 7) returns this year — an engaging, powerful day for community and non-profit leaders throughout the state.

And, we'll be celebrating another successful Secular Advocacy Day, connecting our community with their state legislators.

Be Recognized by California's Secular Community

Held at our state's capitol, California Freethought Day unites our state's non-religious community to celebrate freethought in its many forms – in an outdoor festival with live entertainment, community groups, powerful speakers, authors, podcasters, family fun, and more.

Since its beginnings at the Sacramento County Courthouse Plaza in 2002, admission has always been free – supported by donors and sponsors that are recognized in a variety of ways (see below).

A diverse attendance of 400 is expected at our main event on Sunday, October 8 (and two other events on Saturday), that is passionate and progressive about a variety of pressing issues including social justice, civic engagement, and secular rights.

One in three Californians identify as non-religious and your message will reach an audience that will cherish your support for the largest annual event of its kind that draws people from across the state.
